

Moving Into Turbines

Hi All,

Some of you already know that I am moving into turbines and should have my L-39 at the St. Louis RCFA Jet Rally on June 9th and 10th. Here are some pictures if you are interested. See next page for details on the Jet rally. Hope to see you there,

Ron Crawford

Jet Rally

St. Louis Radio Control Flying Association would like to invite ESRC club members to join us at our Jet Fly on June 9th & 10th. You can go to <http://www.slrcfa.com/> and click on Jet Fly for more information and directions. Hope to see you there.

Stan King,
President, SLRCFA

SLRCFA Field Directions:

Take I-44 west from I-270 to the first Eureka Exit ... it says Highway 109. Turn left on 109 and as soon as you pass under I-44, turn left and get back on I-44 Eastbound. Stay in the right-hand lane and exit I-44 after just 6/10ths mile at the Williams Road Exit.

Follow the Williams Road exit about 1/2 mile until it dead ends into Augustine Road. Turn Left on Augustine Road and follow it about 1 1/4 miles through some residential and farmland. The field is on the left side of Augustine Road, about a 1/4 mile before it dead ends into the Meramec River.

To return to I-44, take Augustine Road back to Williams Road and turn right. Williams Road will be just after the long white fence.

Builders Contest

Did you miss the builders contest? No, you didn't. It seems no one built an airplane this year.

Although it did not qualify for the contest, your humble club secretary did "rebuild" an older 4 Star 60. So here are some pix to fill up this part of the news letter. I stripped it down and repaired loose/cracked balsa where I found it. Also rounded the tail feathers and bobbed the wing & rounded the wing tips. The cockpit is open and moved back from the original position. With a round cowling it has a 30s racer look (at least I think it does). Should fly in the near future.

Membership

We have had a couple of non-members flying at our field. If you do not know the person – please introduce yourself and ask to see their club membership or AMA card. Get a name if you can and encourage them to join the club.
